

MATLAB Figure Arrangement Script

The purpose of this script is to arrange MATLAB figures in a neat grid on the screen, rather than allowing the figures to appear in overlapping windows. This allows the easier comparison of multiple figures. The code is commented to allow easy navigation. An example of what the script does is shown below.

Example Figures Arranged in Grid using Figure Arrangement Script